EXPEDITION / TREKKING CLIENT AGREEMENT

* The Expedition/Trekking Guide is responsible for the general equipment and all logistics of the expedition/Trekking, including the choice of route and location of camps. During the expedition/Trekking the leader may assist clients on his/her own rope, or may delegate staff members to assist. The leader or assistant will demonstrate fully the procedure for the safe use of fixed ropes. Expedition members are expected to fully understand these instructions for ascent and descent and comply with them at all times during the expedition.

* The expedition/Trekking Guide/ leader may at times be required to be a technical advisor for other parties climbing independently on the same mountain.

* The Sherpa's employed by Mountain Experience Pvt. Ltd. are considered as members of staff. They will assist in all aspects of the expedition/Trekking, including the fixing of ropes and carrying of party equipment and placement of camps. Only upon arrangement are they responsible for carrying the personal equipment of participants.

* The team members will have to deal with a hostile environment including changes in temperature, weather and culture. Objective dangers and medical problems may occur which are linked with the altitude and lack of oxygen. This environment and living closely in a small group may generate stress problems for some participants.

* The expedition/Trekking Guide/leader or assistant may in the interest of safety request the participants to stop the ascent any time during the expedition/Trekking.

* You have filled in all the relevant forms required for application truthfully and agree to the Release and Assumption of Risk.

* You have read all the information supplied to you including terms and conditions and accept this.
agree.
